Consent to Medical and Surgical Procedures: The undersigned consents to the procedures which may be performed during this hospitalization or on an outpatient basis, including emergency treatment or services, which may include but are not limited to laboratory procedures, x-ray examinations, medical or surgical treatment or procedures, anesthesia, or hospital services rendered to the patient under the general and special instructions of the patient's physician or surgeon. A separate consent for specific treatment or services may need to be signed in addition to this form as required by hospital policy.

Nursing Care: This hospital provides only general duty nursing care unless, upon orders of the patient's physician, the patient needs more intensive nursing care. If the patient's condition requires the service of a special duty nurse, it is agreed that such an arrangement will be made by the patient or his/her legal representative. The hospital shall in no way be responsible for failure to provide the same and is hereby released from any and all liability arising from the fact that said patient is not provided with such additional care.

Legal Relationship Between Hospital and Physician: All physicians and surgeons furnishing services to the patient, including the radiologist, pathologist, anesthesiologist and the like, are independent contractors with the patient and are not employees or agents of the hospital. The patient is under the care and supervision of his/her attending physician and it is the responsibility of the hospital and its nursing staff to carry out the instructions of such physician. It is the responsibility of the patient's physician or surgeon to obtain the patient's informed consent, when required, for medical or surgical treatment, special diagnostic or therapeutic procedures, or hospital services rendered to the patient under the general and special instructions of the physician.

Release of Information: I agree that the Hospital may disclose my "protected health information" (PHI) in compliance with HIPAA Privacy Provisions which may include my medical records to any third party payers, including but not limited to health insurers, health care service plans, state and federal agencies, workers compensation carriers, manufacturers required by FDA to track medical devices, or my employer. This includes appropriate release of and disclosure of my medical records in compliance with Privacy Provisions to my physicians and other health care providers when necessary for my treatment and general health. While I am in the hospital for treatment and care, the hospital has permission to disclose pertinent information to family members, friends or designated caregivers who may be present with me. I understand that if I am not present in the facility, my personal health information will not be disclosed unless I agree to disclose. Special permission is needed to release this information if the patient is treated for alcohol or drug abuse.

Advanced Directives: I understand that advance directives may include living wills or other probate arrangements, durable powers of attorney or appointment of a "healthcare surrogate".

Please read and initial all applicable statements and Circle the words {DO or DO NOT}

1. I DO have an executed Advanced Directive and have been requested to supply a copy to the hospital. INITIAL _____
2. I DO NOT have an executed Advance Directive. The hospital has offered me information on Advanced Directives which I {DO or DO NOT} wish to receive. INITIAL _____
3. I DO have an executed Durable Power of Attorney for Healthcare Decisions. INITIAL _____
4. I DO NOT have an executed Durable Power of Attorney for Healthcare Decisions. The hospital has offered me information on Durable Power of Healthcare which I {DO or DO NOT} wish to receive. INITIAL _____ Patient Visitation Rights: Methodist McKinney Hospital encourages and facilitates visitation in a manner that promotes healing, balances the needs of all patients and visitors, and creates a safe and secure environment.

- Methodist McKinney Hospital (MMH) implements practices to assure the patients' full and equal right to choose whom they want to visit them and provide support while they are in the hospital. Visitors of choice may include spouses, family members, domestic partners, friends, or other individuals regardless of category of acquaintance.
- In order to protect the privacy of all patients and provide an environment where care can be effectively provided to the patient, visiting hours may be designated and the number and age of visitors may be limited. There are also times when it may be necessary to reasonably restrict visitation in order to provide necessary care for the patient. Reasons for any limitations or restrictions will be explained to the patient and their support person by the healthcare provider. INITIAL _____

Personal Valuables: The hospital shall not be liable for the loss or damage to any money, jewelry, documents, furs, fur coats, and fur garments or other articles of unusual value and small size. The hospital shall not be liable for loss or damage to any other personal property. The patient agrees to send valuables home with family members or in a rare situation or emergency the patient will notify their nurse that they need their valuables deposited with the hospital for safekeeping at which time valuables will be itemized, patient will sign valuable receipt along with two hospital employees.

Financial Agreement: The undersigned agrees, whether he/she signs as agent or as patient, that in consideration of the services to be rendered to the patient, he/she hereby individually obligates himself/herself to pay the account of the hospital in accordance with the regular rates and terms of the hospital. Should the account be referred to an attorney or collection agency for collection, the undersigned shall pay actual attorneys' fees and collection expenses. All delinquent accounts shall bear interest at the legal

Patient Bill of Rights: I acknowledge that I have received the Patient Bill of Rights. _____ (Please initial)

I certify that I have read this document and I am the patient or I am duly authorized to execute it and accept its terms.

Assignment of Insurance Benefits: The undersigned authorizes, whether he/she signs as agent or as patient, direct payment to the hospital of any insurance benefits otherwise payable to or on behalf of the patient for this hospitalization or for these outpatient services, including emergency services if rendered, at a rate not to exceed the hospital's actual charges. It is agreed that payment to the hospital, pursuant to this authorization by an insurance company shall discharge said insurance company of any and all obligations under a policy to the extent of such payment. It is understood by the undersigned that he/she is financially responsible for charges not paid pursuant to this assignment.

Healthcare Service Plan Obligation: This hospital maintains a list of healthcare service plans with which it contracts. A list of such plans is available upon request from the financial office. The hospital has no contract, express or implied, with any plan that does not appear on the list. The undersigned agrees that he/she is individually obligated to pay the full charges of all services rendered to him/her by the hospital if he/she belongs to a plan which does not appear on the above mentioned list.

The undersigned certifies that he/she has read the foregoing, received a copy thereof, and is the patient, the patient's legal representative, or is duly authorized by the patient as the patient's general agent to execute the above and accept its terms.

I have been advised and understand that Methodist McKinney Hospital^[1](the “Hospital”) is an independent legal entity separate from Methodist Hospitals of Dallas/Methodist Health System, and separate from the system hospitals wholly owned and operated by Methodist Hospitals of Dallas/Methodist Health System (currently those wholly owned and operated hospitals are Methodist Dallas Medical Center, Methodist Charlton Medical Center, Methodist Mansfield Medical Center, and Methodist Richardson Medical Center). I am hereby advised and understand the Hospital is not a joint venture or joint enterprise or partnership (to the extent those terms are intended to establish any legal responsibility on Methodist Hospitals of Dallas/Methodist Health System) between Methodist Hospitals of Dallas/Methodist Health System and any other entity or person, including any physician. I am also advised and understand that the physicians, nurses, and other personnel providing care at the Hospital are NOT employees, agents, or partners of Methodist Hospitals of Dallas/Methodist Health System. I am further advised and understand that Methodist Hospitals of Dallas/Methodist Health System does not control the operations, employees, policies, or procedures of the Hospital.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 972-569-2700.

Sincerely,

Shawn Lovelady, President
Methodist McKinney Hospital

^[1] Note – Same as footnote #1

The Hospital and the medical staff have adopted the following statement of Patient Rights and Patient Responsibilities. This list includes, but is not limited to, the following and is delivered upon each patient encounter to the patient. In the event of an incapacitated patient, the information is delivered to the designated patient representative.

PATIENT'S RIGHTS:

1. You have the right to the Hospital's reasonable response to your requests and needs for treatment or service, within the Hospital's capacity, its stated mission, and applicable law and regulation.
2. You have the right to considerate and respectful care. This right includes the consideration of the psychosocial, spiritual, and cultural variables that influence the perceptions of illness. The comfort and dignity of all patients is optimized to the best of ability while delivering care. For care of the AND (Allow Natural Death) patient, this care includes treating primary and secondary symptoms that respond to treatment as desired by the patient or surrogate decision maker, effectively managing pain, and acknowledging the psychosocial and spiritual concerns of the patient and the family regarding dying and the expression of grief by the patient, significant other, and family.
3. Become informed of his or her rights as a patient and participate in care and in advance of, or when discontinuing, the provision of care. The patient may appoint a representative to receive this information should he or she so desire.
4. Exercise these rights and have reasonable access to care without regard to sex, sexual orientation, cultural, economic, educational, or religious background or the source of payment for care.
5. Considerate and respectful care, provided in a safe environment, free from all forms of abuse, neglect, harassment, and/or exploitation.
6. Access protective and advocacy services or have these services accessed on the patient's behalf.
7. Appropriate assessment and management of pain.
8. Remain free from seclusion or restraints of any form that are not medically/behaviorally necessary or are used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience, or retaliation by staff.
9. Knowledge of the name of the physician who has primary responsibility for coordinating his/her care and the names and professional relationships of other physicians and healthcare providers who will see him/her.
10. Receive information from his/her physician about his/her illness, course of treatment, outcomes of care (including unanticipated outcomes), and his/her prospects for recovery in terms that he/she can understand.
11. Receive as much information about any proposed treatment or procedure as he/she may need in order to give informed consent or to refuse the course of treatment. Except in emergencies, this information shall include a description of the procedure or treatment, the medically significant risks involved in the treatment, alternate courses of treatment or non-treatment and the risks involved in each, and the name of the person who will carry out the procedure or treatment.
12. Participate in the development and implementation of his or her plan of care and actively participate in decisions regarding his/her medical care. To the extent permitted by law, this includes the right to request and/or refuse treatment.
13. Formulate advance directives regarding his or her healthcare, and to have Hospital staff and practitioners who provide care in the Hospital comply with these directives (to the extent provided by state laws and regulations).
14. Have a family member, significant other, or representative of his or her choice notified promptly of his or her admission to the Hospital and designate visitors, non visitors at their choosing to include same sex partners, family, or designee support person(s).
15. Have his or her personal physician notified promptly of his or her admission to the Hospital.
16. Full consideration of privacy concerning his/her medical care program. Case discussion, consultation, examination, and treatment are confidential and should be conducted discreetly. The patient has the right to be advised as to the reason for the presence of any individual involved in his or her healthcare.
17. Confidential treatment of all communications and records pertaining to his/her care and his/her stay in the Hospital. His/her written permission will be obtained before his/her medical records can be made available to anyone not directly concerned with his/her care.
18. Receive information in a manner that he/she understands. Communications with the patient will be effective and provided in a manner that facilitates understanding by the patient. Written information provided will be appropriate to the age, understanding and, as appropriate, the language of the patient.

As appropriate, communications specific to the vision, speech, hearing cognitive and language-impaired patient will be appropriate to the impairment.

19. Access information contained in his or her medical record within a reasonable time frame (usually within 48 hours of the request).
20. Reasonable responses to any reasonable request he/she may make for service.
21. Leave the Hospital even against the advice of his/her physician.
22. Reasonable continuity of care.
23. Be advised of the Hospital grievance process, should he or she wish to communicate a concern regarding the quality of the care he or she receives or if he or she feels the determined discharge date is premature. Notification of the grievance process includes: whom to contact to file a grievance, and that he or she will be provided with a written notice of the grievance determination that contains the name of the Hospital contact person, the steps taken on his or her behalf to investigate the grievance, the results of the grievance, and the grievance completion date.
24. Be advised if Hospital/personal physician proposes to engage in or perform human experimentation affecting his/her care or treatment. The patient has the right to refuse to participate in such research projects. Refusal to participate or discontinuation of participation will not compromise the patient's right to access care, treatment, or services.
25. Full support and respect of all patient rights should the patient choose to participate in research, investigation, and/or clinical trials. This includes the patient's right to a full informed consent process as it relates to the research, investigation, and/or clinical trial. All information provided to subjects will be contained in the medical record or research file, along with the consent form(s).
26. Be informed by his/her physician or a delegate of his/her physician of the continuing healthcare requirements following his/her discharge from the Hospital.
27. Examine and receive an explanation of his/her bill regardless of source of payment.
28. Know which Hospital rules and policies apply to his/her conduct while a patient.
29. Designate a representative to make decisions to exercise the patient's right to participate in the development of care and to make decisions regarding medical care on behalf of the patient.
30. Pastoral and other spiritual services.
31. All Hospital personnel, medical staff members, and contracted agency personnel performing patient care activities shall observe these patients' rights.

PATIENT RESPONSIBILITIES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

The care a patient receives depends partially on the patient themselves. Therefore, in addition to these rights, a patient has certain responsibilities as well. These responsibilities should be presented to the patient in the spirit of mutual trust and respect:

1. The patient has the responsibility to provide accurate and complete information concerning his/her present complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, and other matters relating to his/her health.
2. The patient is responsible for reporting perceived risks in his or her care and unexpected changes in his/her condition to the responsible practitioner.
3. The patient and family are responsible for asking questions when they do not understand what they have been told about the patient's care or what they are expected to do.
4. The patient is responsible for following the plan of care established by his/her physician, including the instructions of nurses and other health professionals as they carry out the physician's orders.
5. Accepting the consequences of failing to follow the recommended course of treatment or using other treatments.
6. The patient is responsible for keeping appointments and for notifying the Hospital or physician when he/she is unable to do so.
7. The patient is responsible for his/her actions should he/she refuse treatment or not follow his/her physician's orders.
8. Respecting the hospital property and that of other persons.
9. The patient is responsible for following Hospital rules and regulations concerning patient care and conduct.

PRIVACY NOTICE

PRIVACY NOTICE

For Surveys. We may use and disclose your protected health information to contact you to assess your satisfaction with our services.

For providing your information on treatment alternatives or other services. We may use and disclose protected health information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you. We may also use and disclose protected health information to tell you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you. In some cases the Hospital may receive payment for these activities. We will give you the opportunity to let us know if you no longer wish to receive this type of information.

To discuss your treatment with other people who are involved with your care (and for our hospital directory if appropriate). We may disclose your health information to a friend or family member who is involved in your care. We may also disclose your health information to an organization assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status, and location. [Unless you inform us that you do not want any information released, we may tell individuals who ask your location in the hospital and provide a general statement of your condition.]

Research. Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose your protected health information for medical research. All research projects, however, are subject to a special approval process. Before we use or disclose your health information for research, the project will have been approved.

As Required By Law. We will disclose your protected health information when the law requires us to do so.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose your protected health information when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another person.

Organ and Tissue Donation. We may use or disclose your protected health information to an organ donation bank or to other organizations that handle organ procurement to assist with organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

Military and Veterans. The protected health information of members of the United States Armed Forces and members of a foreign military authority may be disclosed as required by military command authorities.

Employers. We may disclose your protected health information to your employer if we provide you with health care services at your employer's request and the services are related to an evaluation for medical surveillance of the workplace or to evaluate whether you have a work-related illness or injury. We will tell you when we make this type of disclosure.

Public Health Risks. We may disclose your protected health information for public health activities which include the prevention or control of disease, injury or disability; to report births and deaths; to report child abuse or neglect; to report reactions to medications or problems with products; to notify people of recalls of devices or products; to notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition; or to notify the appropriate government authority if we believe you have been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. If you agree, we can provide immunization information to schools.

Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your protected health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and civil rights laws.

Legal Proceedings. We may disclose your protected health information when we receive a court or administrative order. We may also disclose your protected health information if we get a subpoena, or another type of discovery request. If there is no court order or judicial subpoena, the attorneys must make an effort to tell you about the request for your protected health information.

Law Enforcement. When a law enforcement official requests your protected health information, it may be disclosed in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons, or similar process. It may also be disclosed to help law enforcement identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person. We may also disclose protected health information about the victim of a crime; about a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct; about criminal conduct on the premises; or in an emergency to report a crime, the location of the crime, victims of the crime, or to identify the person who committed the crime.

Coroners, Medical Examiners, and Funeral Directors. We may disclose your protected health information to a coroner, medical examiner, or a funeral director.

National Security and Intelligence Activities. When authorized by law, we may disclose your protected health information to federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities.

Protective Services for the President and Others. We may disclose your protected health information to certain federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other persons, or foreign heads of state, or to conduct special investigations.

Inmates or Persons in Custody. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release your protected health information to the correctional institution or a law enforcement official when it is necessary for the institution to provide you with health care; when it is necessary to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others; or when it is necessary for the safety and security of the correctional institution.

Fundraising. We may send you information as part of our fundraising activities. As you review our fundraising materials, you will see information giving you the opportunity to "opt out" of (meaning "choose not to participate in") receiving fundraising materials in the future. If you notify us that you wish to opt out, as provided in the materials sent to you with that mailing, we will not send you fundraising information or mailings in the future.

OTHER USES AND DISCLOSURES:

Most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes require your authorization. Psychotherapy notes are a particular type of protected health information. Mental health records generally are not considered psychotherapy notes.

Your authorization is necessary if we sell your protected health information.

If we use your protected health information to communicate about a third party's product or service that encourages you to use that product or service, and, if we are paid for that communication, we will get your authorization. These communications can take various forms like mailings, email communications and telephone communications. However, we will not need your authorization to provide you information face-to-face (example, in the Hospital); to send bills or request payment for services rendered; to communicate with you about your treatment; to provide you with prescription drug refill reminders; to communicate with you about health care issues generally; or to communicate with you about Government programs.

We will get your authorization if we use your health information for marketing.

We will sometimes notify you about our health-related products and services as part of our Hospital operations. These are not marketing communications, and your authorization is not necessary. However, if you do not wish to receive these communications, please let us know by contacting the Privacy Officer. See contact information at the end of this Notice.

Right to Access. You have the right to access, or to inspect and obtain a copy of your protected health information. To exercise this right, you should contact the Privacy Officer because you must complete a specific form so we have the information we need to process your request. You may request that your records be provided in an electronic format and we can work together to agree on an appropriate electronic format. Or you can receive your records in a paper copy. You may also direct that your protected health information be sent in electronic format to another individual. You may be charged a reasonable fee for access. We can refuse access under certain circumstances. If we refuse access, we will tell you in writing and in some circumstances you may ask that a neutral person review the refusal.

Right to Amend Your Records. If you feel that your protected health information is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask that we amend your health records. To exercise this right, you must contact the Privacy Officer to complete a specific form stating your reason for the request and other information that we need to process your request. We can refuse your request if we did not create the information, if the information is not part of the information we maintain, if the information is part of information that you were denied access to, or if the information is accurate and complete as written. You will be notified in writing if your request is refused and you will be provided an opportunity to have your request included in your protected health information.

Right to an Accounting. You have a right to an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information that is maintained in a designated record set. This is a list of persons, government agencies, or businesses who have obtained your health information. To exercise this right, you should contact the Privacy Officer because you must complete a specific form to provide us with the information that we need to process your request. There are specific time limits on such requests. You have the right to one accounting per year at no cost.

Right to a Restriction. You have the right to ask us to restrict disclosures of your protected health information. To exercise this right, you should contact the Privacy Officer because you must complete a specific form to provide us with the information that we need to process your request. If you self-pay for a service and do not want your health information to go to a third party payor, we will not send the information, unless it has already been sent, you do not complete payment, or there is another specific reason we cannot accept your request. For example, if your treatment is a bundled service and cannot be unbundled and you do not wish to pay for the entire bundle, or the law requires us to bill the third party payor (e.g., a governmental payor), we cannot accept your request. We do not have to agree to any other restriction. If we have previously agreed to another type of restriction, we may end that restriction. If we end a restriction, we will inform you in writing.

Right to Communication Accommodation. You have the right to request that we communicate with you in a certain way or at a specific location. To exercise this right, you should contact the Privacy Officer because you must complete a specific form to provide us the information that we need to process your request.

Breach Notification. You have the right to be notified if we determine that there has been a breach of your protected health information.

Right to Obtain the Notice of Privacy Practices. You have the right to have a personal copy of this Notice. This form serves as that Notice and will be provided to you when you first register for care and treatment. You may request additional copies from the hospital registration staff or you may also go to our website at <http://www.methodistmckinneyhospital.com>

Right to File a Complaint. If you believe your privacy rights as described in this Notice have been violated, you may file a written complaint with our Privacy Officer. The name and address information are listed below. Or, you may file a written complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services - Office for Civil Rights, Regional Office at: 1301 Young Street, Suite 1169 Dallas, TX 75202 (800) 368-1019 or through www.hhs.gov/oea/privacy/hipaa/complaints/index.html. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE:

We reserve the right to change this Notice at any time. We reserve the right to make the revised Notice effective for protected health information that we currently maintain in our possession, as well as for any protected health information we receive, use, or disclose in the future. A current copy of the Notice will be posted in our Hospital.

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

WHY WE ARE PROVIDING THIS NOTICE:

Methodist McKinney Hospital complies information relating to you and the treatment and services you receive. This information is called protected health information (PHI) and is maintained in a specific set of records for you and your care/ treatment. We may use and disclose this information in various ways. Sometimes your agreement or authorization is necessary for us to use or disclose your information, and sometimes it is not. This Notice describes how we use and disclose your protected health information and your rights. We are required by law to give you this Notice, and we are required to follow it. We may change this Notice at any time if the law changes or when our policies change. If we change the Notice you will be given a revised Notice. You may also access this notice at: <http://www.methodistmckinneyhospital.com>

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION THAT MAY BE MADE WITHOUT YOUR AUTHORIZATION:

For your treatment. We may share your protected health information with other treatment providers. For example, if you have a heart condition we may use your information to contact a specialist and may send your information to that specialist. We may send your information to other treatment providers, as necessary.

For payment. We may share your protected health information with anyone who may pay for your treatment. For example, we may need to obtain a pre-authorization for treatment or send your health information to an insurance company so it may pay for treatment. However, if you pay out of pocket for your treatment and make a specific request that we not send information to your insurance company for that treatment, we will not send that information to your insurer except under certain circumstances. We may also contact you regarding payment of your bill.

For our healthcare operations. We may use and disclose your protected health information when it is necessary for us to function as a business or provide services. When we contract with other businesses to do specific tasks or services for us, we may share your protected health information related to those tasks or services (for example, assisting with billing or insurance claims). When we do this, the business agrees in the contract to protect your health information and use and disclose such health information only to the extent necessary to complete the assigned tasks or as we would use it in the Hospital. These businesses are called "Business Associates" and our contract for their services is called a "Business Associate Agreement." Another example is our internal review of your protected health information as part of our quality process, patient safety review and staff performance.
